

SDAR's eNews & eEducation Fact Sheet

eNews and eEducation

Put your message in front of real estate professionals who receive SDAR e-mail communications to stay informed. SDAR's eNews and eEducation are electronic newsletters delivered each month to the e-mails of more than 16,000 of the Association's active members, affiliates, and other real estate professionals throughout the county. eNews includes timely information about upcoming Association events, industry news, and member benefits. eEducation focuses on upcoming classes and seminars at SDAR's service centers, as well as other educational events in the community.

Ad Submissions

SDAR utilizes a safe, secure, and free service, called Dropbox, for collecting advertising materials.

Dropbox allows users to bring documents, graphics, and photos together in a shared online storage with no downloading necessary.

SDAR will create a shared folder in Dropbox specific to your advertising purchase, and the Advertiser will be responsible for submitting creative to their Dropbox account by deadline date.
